There will be a gap of at least two years for candidates who has already received CLKA award in any of the category.
- Work/s should be properly framed.
- Sculpture/s in fragile material/s will be accepted at the risk of the participants only if properly packed in strong boxes.
- All exhibits must have labels, with details, pasted on the reverse of each exhibit.
- The entire form including all the pages with rules and regulations should be signed by the participant and submitted.

Insurance

The Akademi will make every possible effort to take care of the safety of the exhibits during custody, transit and display of the exhibits but it will not be responsible for any loss or damage during display, transit or storage, no claim to this effect will be entertained. The artists are at their liberty to take an insurance coverage at their own cost, if so desired.

Sale of Exhibits

Works selected for the exhibition will be open for sale subject to consent of the artists. The artists must mention the price of his/her exhibits in the schedule form; otherwise it will be presumed the sale of exhibits is not wanted. The sale amount will go to the artist after deduction of 25% from the sale price.

Return of works

No work, which has been included in the exhibition, will be allowed to be removed before the close of the exhibition. Artists should take their works back within 30 days after the closure of the Exhibition or any date announced by the Akademi. Any work not collected within the stipulated time shall become the property of the Akademi and it can dispose it whichever way it deems appropriate.

The artist who's work of previous annual exhibition is lying with the akademi will not be entitled to participate in the exhibition till he collects his old work.

General

- There will be an invitee section for the known artists of the region. This section will also be open for the office bearers, members, and staff of the Akademi. The committee appointed by the Akademi will nominate artists to be invited for this section. Members, Staff, office bearers of the Akademi and jury/committee members are not eligible to participate in the competition section.
- Anyone can participate in the professional category, including students, if they so desire. A participant can participate in one category. Non-students cannot participate in the student category.
- It's the responsibility of the participant to submit fully and correctly filled up form. It may not be possible for the officer on duty, at the time of receiving the entries, to cross check the forms and the entries. If there is any mistake in the form on the part of the participant and the form is accepted by the officer receiving the entries, Akademi will not take any responsibility for having received the wrongly filled form and is within its right to reject such an entry.
- Entry fee can be paid only in cash.
- The decision of the Jury would be final and binding on all and no correspondence whatsoever by anyone will be entertained by the Akademi on the subject.
- The works to be submitted under student category must be accompanied with photocopy of the I-Card of the student duly attested by class teacher or the principal of the institute where the student is studying at present.
- All artists should submit photographs (5x7 inch size) of their original art works submitted in any category (in addition to 3 photographs of 8x12 inches mentioned in the criteria for competition section) along with Portrait of the artist and Brief Printed Bio-data.
- The artists should also send high resolution (300 DPI) digital images in TIFF format in a CD or DVD of the submitted works along with a portrait of the artist mentioning name, title, size, medium, price, year of creation and address etc along with brief Bio-data of the Artists. These images could be used for reproduction in catalogue or in any other form for publicity. The CD/DVD will be retained by CLKA in its archives and no communication on this account will be entertained.
- Any participant who fails to comply with the rules will become ineligible for participation.
- The exhibition will be organized at Chandigarh from 17th March to 21st March, 2016.

- To ensure the dignity and sanctity of the occasion, the prizes will be given to the prize winners only and not to their representatives at the time of prize giving ceremony.
- These prizes will not be divided or shared. The prize money cannot be split. Canvassing in any form or approaching any member of the jury for favour will result in disqualification.
- The entry fee and any other documents, photographs, CD/DVD will not be refunded. The original artwork will be returned to the participants unless these are sold. Participants will have to collect their original art works on their own within the stipulated period.
- The identification slip with the name and address of the artist, title, size, medium, year of creation of the work should be attached properly at the backside of the submitted work.
- Chandigarh Lalit Kala Akademi reserves the right to print images of any of the exhibits for catalogue, mugs, greeting cards, carry bags, mouse pads, ceramic plates and other souvenirs or for posters, advertisements, hoardings and other publicity purposes in its website, print or electronic media.
- CLKA reserves the right to change the terms and conditions and increase or decrease the number and amount of prizes. In regard to the interpretation of any rule, the decision of the jury will be final.
- Artists submitting their art works in the installation discipline will have to manage the display, equipment or any other material required for this purpose.
- In case of insufficient number of art works available worthy of being awarded the jury will have the right to withhold any number of awards in any category.
- Three awards in professional and five awards in student categories would be available for jury to decide however it is not necessary that each medium would get an award (number of mediums is more than the number of awards available). Depending upon the quality of work belonging to any of the mediums of Painting, Sculpture, Graphics (Printmaking), Mix-Media, Photography, Drawing, Installation and Multi-Media any number of award/s could be given in any one medium. Taking into consideration the quality of work it may happen that some medium/s may not get any award and there may be more than one award/s in some other medium/s.
- It is the prerogative of the Akademi to appoint the jury member/s and they could belong to any discipline/s including artists, art historians, art teachers, architects and art critics. It is also not necessary to appoint jury members belonging to all the advertised mediums. The number of jury member/s is also the prerogative of the Akademi. No enquiry or complaint in this regard would be entertained.
- The awarded participants would be required to submit an affidavit on a stamp paper duly attested by a notary with an undertaking by the artist that he/she is a resident or a regular student (not correspondence courses) of Chandigarh/Panchlula /Mohali (with date of birth and father/mother's name along with the address and telephone number mentioned) and the art work submitted is the original art work of the participant. Artists would also be required to mention that the art work has not been given any award prior to this and has not been created before 30 November 2013.

- Akademi will consider the self attested affidavit submitted by the participant about information given in the form, as true, until challenged by someone with a proof of any irregularity committed by the participant, in following the rules and regulations.
- Signatures of the applicant along with date at the bottom of each page of the form are compulsory otherwise the form and the entry could be rejected.
- In case of rejection of the form and the entry there will be no refund of the entrée fee.
